

HOMEOWNER'S ASSOCIATION, INC.
INDIANAPOLIS, INDIANA

e

Board of Director's Meeting
June 7, 2009

FINANCIALS:

Old Business:

The board has received more checks for dues.

New Business:

The second late notices for dues should be mailed out mid June.

The board has decided to keep the same accountant. He seems to be responsive to Quickbooks online.

The association only owed $44 in taxes. Most of the prior cost in taxes was due to late fees. The board does not see a need for tax exempt filing.

LANDSCAPING & GROUNDS:

Old Business:

The East median was filled with concrete.

New Business:

The bush that Jen O'Neal complained about has been removed. The light at the West entrance has been repaired.

COMMUNICATION:

Old Business:

Minutes of the meeting will be mailed to Josh to be put on the website.

Summer newsletter will go out. Spring newsletter was forgone.

New Business:

A new newsletter will be composed which includes the Spring cleanup report, median work, curb painting, website information, landscaping, and new garage sale date.

OTHER:

Old Business:

Josh will e-mail updates to the website contact and e-mail Rheba the association's logo.

The Spring clean up is complete.

New Business:

Light sweeps will not pick up again until fall.

The next meeting date is July 12th.
